T. T. Geer's skunk loose Saturday night at the armory.

Attorney General Idleman is not never has been, nor ever will be a politican. He swears it.

No genuine free coinage man objects to Banker Martin's object lesson. It proves too much.

If you can't have a Bryan speaker in your town to tell you about Independent American bimetallism, you can circulate literature.

Talking about resigning? None of the men who before the primaries and It is all a mistake of Harvey Scott county convention were silver men to and John Sherman and McKinley, repget in; not much.

Alderman Rigdon is net as tall as the tall sapling of the Waldo Hills but he is tall enough to take his scalp Saturday night at the armory.

Help the Bryan ratification fund. It is dependent on the masses of the people, having neither Republican nor Cleveland officcials to draw upon.

THE JOURNAL need not say it is heart and soul for the Bryan electoral ticket in Oregon. It has been from the moment Mr. Bryan was nominated.

The Bryan clubs and Bimetallic clubs springing up all over the country are not the result of Mark Hanna's ten million barrel, but the distress of ten million voters.

THE JOURNAL silver supplements at $1 a hundred are going off rapidly. Ruise a little fund of dimes and quarters and supply all your neighbors with campaign literature up to date.

Rev. "Cyclone" Edwards Davis, the Oakland Christian minister, who is so well known at Salem, as the most talented man in that church on the coast, has come out for Bryan and bimetallism.

Hon. C. B. Moores has a long article in the Statesman Thursday on "the crime of 1873.2 Read it carefully and note that he absolutely fails to claim that the bill demonetizing silver was read on its final passage in the house.

The Statesman does its friend Jefferson Myers an injury, intimating he will vote for McKinley. Col. Jeff. approved by many of the silver men of this district. But no one doubts his sincerity or enthusiasm in supporting Senator Mitchell will begin to build cation at Salem. He will not like Mr. Salem. Get the issue of popularity as a life-long free coinage running day and night. man, as the pioneer champion of indewhite metal as he ever was!

We do not deny to Senator Mitchell the right to construe the St. Louis platform on which Major McKinley is The women like Candidate Bryan nominated to be a silver platform-it for his devotion to and confidence in favors bimetallism and wants to usher in the era of free coinage about the second coming of our Saviour, when it Alderman Rigdon should not turn will be too late to do many of us any

He never say he will walk on it, uprightly with both feet, he will have to lie on it and crawl on it on his belly! Of course, Senator Mitchell hopes to win support for the McKinley platform among tile Republican advocates of free coinage and among the free coinage Democrats and Populists, by representing that the St. Louis platform is really a free coinage platform. resenting that it means the single gold standard. McKinley stands for free silver! Oh tempore, oh mores! oh rats!

EXPORTING GOLD.

Banker McCornack as state central committeeman, with four able Republican officials, has been using his persuasive influence to enable the city, county and state officials to pungle up $10,000 in gold for export.

to export gold. It is fortunate the pungle the auriferous.

Salem is the only city in Oregon to export, and the only class who can supply it are those who first draw it out of the public treasury. The bankers and Mr. Geer's poor have no money to spare. But Salem has a neverceasing free coinage of $50,000 to $75, 000 a month from the public treasury through the public institutions. But we give solemn warning that, while the gold from the public taxes enriches those who get it, $50,000 to $75,000 a month from the quartz mines of this county under free comage would absolutely ruin us!

THE SALEM OBJECT LESSON.

The banker's exhibit in a Salem jewelry store window to prove that demonetized silver bullion as meas ured in gold is doing its work. The crowds before the window keep grow-Myers' candidacy for congress was not ing. They are now two to one in favor of what the object lesson proves. Soon they will be unanimous. Then the exhibit can be taken back to the

Two years ago when could not have held the honored position he now holds in the estimation of the banking syndicates. McKinley is all right as the friend (?) of the laboring man. The bankers say he is, and that settles it. Let the object lesson It is doing grand educational go on.

If all the Oregon Republican members of the legislature, who claimed to be silver men and Mitchell men in order to get nominations and elections at the hands of the people last June, were to resign their places would be quickly filled by genuine silver men. The Situation in Michigan.

A Michigan correspondent of the New York Evening Post writes as follows to that paper regarding the political situation in the Badger state: " I feel far from easy over the situation in this state. In 1892 our vote for Harrison was 222,708, for Cleveland 202,596, for Weave 19,802, A union of the Cleveland and Weaver vote would have come within a few hundred of carring the state against Harrison. This year the democrats, the populists and new silver party vote will undoubtedly combine on Bryan and be reinforced by the vote of many silver republicans, which, on the basis of the vote in 1892, would sweep the state against McKinley. My opportunity for observation is This gold is to be exported to Port- limited and I may be badly mistaken, land to swell the $100,000 campaign but so far I see but little in the manfund being raised there to carry Ore- agement of the republican party to gon for McKinley and avert the awful inspire confidence. "To enunciate a gold platform and then place astride the party's back for governor a tree silver, single tax ignorant, cranky quack like Pingree renders the situation ridiculous. The republican party is also badly handicapped by its press. The Detroit Tribune, arrogantly assuming to be the leading republican paper of the state, is, as is the Evening News, published by the same syndicate rabidly free silver. The combine owning these journals has recently purchased the Grand Rapids Democrat. the most influential democratic paper in the state outside of Detroit, which of course enthusiastically supports Bryan. The Journal, of Detroit, so far fails entirely to deal with the finance issue in the way the situation demands. Without a second democratic ticket sustained and pushed I fear for all
